

Food Manager Trainings

Section 9 of the Franklin County Food Regulations requires high and medium risk food establishment management and supervisory staff to be certified through an ANSI-ANAB accredited food manager program. The following is a list of ANSI-ANAB accredited food manager programs.

Franklin County does not promote any one of the following providers. The choice remains with the food service establishment as to which provider they choose for a certified training provider.

ANSI Food Service Training Listing from the ANSI-ANAB website

<https://anabpd.ansi.org/Accreditation/credentialing/certificate-issuers/AllDirectoryListing?prgID=237,238&statusID=4>

AAA Food Handler: <https://aaafoodhandler.com/>

Online food service training for managers and food handlers

Always Food Safe: <https://alwaysfoodsafes.com/en/>

Online food service training for managers and food handlers

National Registry of Food Safety Professionals: <https://www.nrfsp.com/>

Listing of variety of food service training providers both on line and in person.

Responsible Training/Safeway Certification: <http://www.responsibletraining.com>

Online food service training for managers and food handlers

State Food Safety: <https://www.statefoodsafety.com/>

Online food service training for managers and food handlers

ServSafe: <https://www.servsafe.com/>

Online and in-person food service training for managers and food handlers

Trust20: <https://www.trust20.co/>

Online food service training for managers and food handlers